

Cosy as a nest, the easy chair with a woven geometric pattern, it is in harmony with wood and bamboo

The STOOLS Dharma by Unopiù are in teak (42 cm h, € 177 each). The TABLE X&Y in painted metal is by Paolo Rizzatto for Danese Milano (60x60x72 h cm, € 345); on it: BOTTLES in porcelain by Foelke Duin (from Planoprino, from € 44), the VASE Bianco/Nero by Ettore Sottsass for Bitossi Ceramiche (€ 576), BOWL in melamine by Stelton, designed by Jens Fager (€ 14,99). On the opposite page, the striped TEXTILE Extralarge by Dedac, resistant to atmospheric agents (143 cm h, € 89,10 per metre). The SWING is Nido Altea by Varaschin, with weave in synthetic fibre on a frame in tubular aluminum (120x130x180 h cm, € 1.660). The set of GARDEN UTENSILS Opera is in wood and Corten® steel, by Alessandro Masturzo for De Castelli (€ 782). The stool ZenCap is by Exteta, designed by Ludovica+Roberto Palomba, in Canadian red citron (45 cm h, € 850). SOUP TUREEN in porcelain (Galleria Luisa Delle Piane, € 160), PLATE with blue circle by CoinCasa (€ 5,90). The FOLDING SCREEN Cliff by Tectona is composed of individually sold panels, in teak and Batylline textile, designed by Christophe Delcourt (€ 410 for the 60x160 h cm module).